FURTHER STAMP DUTIES REMISSIONS.

The Premier, Mr. Dunstan, announced today that concessions already made by the State Government with regard to the remission of stamp duty and gift duty on transfers of interests for matrimonial homes, had now been extended to the remission of Lands Titles Office registration fees. These remissions would operate for a period of 12 months from July 14, 1975.

The Premier said that persons who had paid registration fees on transfers of this nature since that date could obtain a refund by applying in writing to the Registrar-General and specifying the transaction concerned.
